SCOTT FOX

If you've tuned into a morning radio show in Ontario over the past three decades, chances are you've already started your day with Scott Fox. With over 27 years of broadcasting experience, Scott has become a trusted voice for audiences across Canada. Known for his sharp wit and engaging storytelling, Scott has a unique ability to connect listeners to the worlds of news, entertainment, and culture.

Scott's radio career has been nothing short of extraordinary. He spent 19 years hosting the top-rated morning show at Z103.5 Toronto, where he became a household name. In 2012, Scott's loyal audience followed him when he took on a brief stint at KiSS 92.5, Toronto. But Scott wasn't gone long—by June 2013, he returned to Z103.5 to reclaim his popular morning show. It was here that Scott began working alongside co-host, Kat Callaghan, now famously recognized as the voice of "Jessie" on TikTok.

In 2019, Scott joined 91.5 The Beat in Kitchener, Ontario, where he hosted a simulcast morning show that also aired on Energy 95.3 in Hamilton and Toronto. The show extended its reach further, airing as an afternoon drive program on Fresh 93.1 in Barrie and Simcoe County and 103.1 Fresh Radio in London, Ontario. Scott's ability to connect with listeners across multiple markets speaks to his exceptional talent and loyal audience base.

Scott's appeal goes beyond his humour and charisma—he's a self-admitted right-leaning conservative, but his balanced approach to discussions is what sets him apart. He's known for fairly portraying both sides of every issue, including opposing opinions, making his show a space for honest, open conversations. This thoughtful, nuanced approach has earned him respect and trust from a broad audience, regardless of political affiliations.

Scott is renowned for his high-profile interviews, having spoken with countless stars of pop culture and music, including Taylor Swift, Rihanna, Justin Bieber, Justin Timberlake, and Britney Spears. He's also well-respected for his political interviews, hosting multiple Canadian prime ministers, premiers, and mayors on his show. During the height of Toronto Mayor Rob Ford's scandals, Scott was the only member of the Toronto media that Ford granted an interview. Scott's ability to ask tough questions while maintaining trust and respect has made him a standout figure in media.

Beyond radio, Scott has made numerous appearances on television, serving as a panelist on the CTV News Channel, where his insights and engaging delivery earned him high praise. From 2003 to 2009, he was the host of the BPM:Tv Top 20 Countdown, a music video show that brought his personality to audiences across Canada.

As a live entertainer, Scott is a well known master of ceremonies, having hosted nearly 200 charity and fundraising events and helping to raise more than $7 million for charitable causes. Whether hosting a gala, energizing a nightclub, or emceeing a corporate event, Scott's quick wit and natural charm make him a standout entertainer.

Today, Scott continues to connect with audiences through The Scott Fox After 9 Podcast, a top-ranking podcast with an annual listenership of 700,000. Covering news, pop culture, politics, and sports, the podcast has become a daily favourite for fans across Canada.

Scott is also deeply involved in the sports world. As Commissioner of the Canadian University Men's Field Lacrosse League, he is driving the growth and visibility of collegiate lacrosse. You can also catch him as the in-game host for the Toronto Rock of the National Lacrosse League, where his high-energy presence electrifies arenas.

Off the air, Scott is a proud father of two accomplished scientists, and a devoted Bernedoodle owner. He's an avid golfer, a lacrosse executive, and a digital innovator, having managed content for 18 radio stations and built massive social media followings. His accolades include 22 Toronto Sun Reader's Choice Awards, 5 Top Choice Awards, and the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal for his contributions to media and community service.

Scott lives in Burlington, Ontario, where he continues to create content, inspire his audience, and make a difference in his community. Follow him on social media to keep up with his latest posts: @ScottFoxOnAir.

He's not just a voice; he's a storyteller, a leader, a mentor, and a trusted name in media who makes life a little brighter every single day.
